

INSPIRING WOMEN OF HAWAII Panel Discussion & Talk Story

THURSDAY, MARCH 5

5-6PM, CAMPUS CENTER 203E

Open to the public | Panelists are featured in Dr. Loretta Chen's new book

Kim Coco Iwamoto was a Democratic primary candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Hawaii in the 2018 election. She served as a commissioner on the Hawaii Civil Rights Commission and was elected to serve 2 terms on the Hawaii Board of Education. She was recognized as a Champion of Change by President Barack Obama and listed as a pioneer for LGBTQ rights by Newsweek.

Kathy Inouye is currently the Senior Advisor at Kobayashi Group. She was previously the Chief Operating Officer overseeing the design and development of various master planned communities, luxury resorts, hotel developments, shopping centers, and condominium projects. She serves on various non-profit boards and has received numerous personal and professional recognition awards.

Kymerly Pine is the Honolulu City Council member representing District 1. She is the Chair of the Council Committee on Business Economic Development and Tourism. She previously served as a Representative in the State House of Representatives and is currently in the running for Mayor of Honolulu.

Dr. Shirley Daniel is Professor of Accountancy and Director of the Pacific Asian Management Institute (PAMI) in the Shidler College of Business Administration at the University of Hawaii. Since joining UH in 1986, Dr. Daniel has served in a number of leadership positions and has generated over $25 million in sponsored research and training programs. She is a licensed CPA and a past-president of the Hawaii Society of CPAs and the Hawaii Chapter of Women Corporate Directors. She currently serves on the Board of Directors of American Savings Bank.

MODERATOR Dr. Loretta Chen was the Creative Director of The Activation Group, a creative agency with offices around Asia where she helmed campaigns for Samsung, Louis Vuitton, Nike as well as BNP Paribas' all-star Women's Tennis tournament featuring Serena Williams. She directed numerous theatrical productions including "Victor Victoria," staged during President Obama's APEC visit to Singapore and premiered "The F Word" (2011) at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, garnering her an Amnesty Freedom of Expression Award for bringing the plight of sex-trafficked women to light. She was the International Consultant to Bhutan, a nominated Member of Parliament and voted one of Asia's most Inspiring Women. Her latest book, "Inspiring Women of Hawaii" is available at Costco, Target and all good bookstores.

Event is free & appropriate for all ages.
Open to the public. For more information
email SGWiB@hawaii.edu

SHIDLER
GWIB
Graduate Women in Business

EMPOWERING WAHINE TO DRIVE CHANGE